O R D E R (Per the Hon'ble Sri Justice Bilal Nazki):

The vehicle of the petitioner has been seized because it was found being run without permit, without R.C, without F.C., without PUCC and without driving licence. Proof of payment of tax was also not produced.

After hearing learned counsel for the parties, we feel that these are all matters, which need to be gone into an enquiry, but at the same time, the vehicle can be released in favour of the petitioner on production of the documents and on payment of tax due. Therefore, the vehicle be released on payment of tax due and on production of the documents.

The writ petition is accordingly disposed of. No order as to costs.
